TO THE BEPUBLICAN VOTERS OF OHIO You Annual State Convention will be held at Columbus, on Wednesday, the 21th Day of March 1872 for the nomination of candidates for the following offices, viz.

Delegates. (Eb.) The Committee te The Committee respectfully suggests the importance of a full delegation from each county in the Convention. The issues to be decided in the present cam-ganization can not be too strongly urged; not can this great auxilliary to final success be too early attended to. In this connection, the Committee would earnestly recommend, that where counwalk off with it wholesale. A fair re-Conventions, on the total day of March, notice be given that the County Central Committees, for the country Central Committees, for the coming dampaign, will be selected at that time.

It is important that each delegation to the State Convention bring with them a correction of the officer, and members with most office address. members with post office address, of the committee of their county, and deliver the same to tills convenition.

While speaking of these things, it occurs to one to reflect upon the singular five irritious aspect which the Democracy.

A lay or two after it was adjusted, the whole stare about a dozen strong, was taken. A few days after the lock was provided in the country of the start of of t Republican party. The Republican party instituted the investigations, published the results of the same to the world, and by persistent efforts compelled the attention of the people to the villains and corruptions of the Ring.

When the hour arrived that the conclusion was apparent and inevitable that the people were thoroughly aroused and determined to crush out Tammahy and all connected with, or friending to fit, then did many astute Democrate mush suddenly to the fore front of the conflict, and to save themselves howled fiercely for the overthrow of the Ring. They did this, as everybody knows, when they found that it would the same and the same to the would allow anybody to steal it, either. So he set a trap. A new stock had arrived that day, and he put it in the washstand as usual. After the House adjourned he concealed himself in the room, and waited. He did not have to wait long. In the would allow anybody to steal it, either. So he set a trap. A new stock had arrived that day, and he put it in the washstand as usual. After the House adjourned he concealed himself in the would allow anybody to steal it, either. So he set a trap. A new stock had arrived that day, and he put it in the washstand as usual. After the House adjourned he concealed himself in the room, and waited. He did not have to wait long. I have to wait long as the room, and the would allow anybody to steal it, either. So he set a trap. A new stock had arrived that day, and he put it in the washstand as usual. After the House adjourned he concealed himself in the washstand as usual. After the House adjourned he concealed himself in the vom, and waited. He did not have to wait long. I have to wait long. I have to wait long of teet tip-toeing up to the door. He laid low. Pretty soon a key was turned in the lock, and the visual in the would have to wait long. I have to wait long of teet tip-toeing up to the door. He laid low. Pretty soon a key was turned in the lock, and the would have to wait long. I have to wait long of teet tip-toeing up to the Ring. They did this, as everybody knows, when they found that it would be their political ruin to do otherwise, or to longer hesitate. So long as it seemed that Tammany had a chance of handed out two men waked straight to the washstand and deliberately lifted off the marble top! That was all, but it was quite enough for uncle John! He kept quiet, however, until they had handed out two or three bottles. Then seemed that Tammany had a chance of beating down, overthrowing or buying of its opponents, so long as the promise held out bright and clear for a continuance in power and plunder of the thieves, just so long did those astute thieves, just so long did those astute Democratic gentlemen cling to, and support Boss Tweed. It was only when the Tammany star had set, that these gentlemen, actuated by a selfish desire gentlemen, actuated by a selfish desire to save themselves, even at the sacrifice of their pid friend, which had, in the past, stood them in such good stead, fied from the filthy depths of corruption in which they had for so long a time wallowed, and arrayed themselves in the ranks of the Reformers.

As all the world knows this, one is puzzled to know what species of blind infatuation possesses these men to rise in their seats, as they have done several times recently here in Congress, and declaim virtuously of the great work of reform which "we" (they) had accomplished in the uprooting and replied the youth.

"A Remarkable Set."

Old farmer Gruff was one morning tugging away with all his might and main at a barrel of apples which he was endeavoring to get up the cellar stairs, an calling at the top of his lungs for one of the boys to lend him a hand, but in vain. When he had, after an infinite amount of sweating and snuffing, accomplished the task, and just when they were not needed, of course, the "boys" made their appearance.

"Where have you been about, I'd like to know, that you could not hear me call?" inquired the farmer, in an angry tone, and addressed the eldest.

Covode and His Whiskey. ugton Correspondent of Con. Com.) I do not know whether the doctor ed to prescribe whiskey for Covode not, but I presume he did, for Uncle the was too faultless a man to drink whiskey unless it was good for him. At any rate he used to keep it in his room and drink some when he felt faint. He came from a whiskey pro-ducing district, and the boys used to say that he always had on hand a nice article. In those days, before we had any congressional Temperance Socie-ties, when McDougal, Yates and such kindred spirits were in their prime whiskey used to be sold at the restaur frequently kept in some of the com mittee with him, the chances were that a thirsty soul could always find comfort in that room. Covode at that time, was chairman of the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, the same over which Mr. Halsey, of New Jersey, nowso ably presides. There was not much business for the commit-t e to do, and the room was a handsome one, with lounges, and arm chairs, and all the inviting influences; besides, a chat, and at almost any hour in the day a party of jolly members might be found in that room, drinking smoking, and telling stories. The whisky plenty, Covode was liberal with ase after case came to his address from zen bottles, a small keg, a demijohn
